Dear Marijane:

I finally found that clipping about Tom Mooney. It has been sitting on my desk in a pile of other papers. I thought you might want it for your files.

I just came back from a short fishing trip in Kona. After about 9 unsuccessful days over the past few years we finally landed a big marlin - 437 pounds!

Aloha,

P.S. Your note of May 7 was received after I dictated the first part of this letter. Keep after your attorney, there must be some way to collect the insurance on the basis of testimony, even without an official death certificate.

The Ziebers address is: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Zieber

 Santa Rose, CA 95404

Cookoo will enjoy hearing from you.

Thomas Mooney II
Retired Marine Lt. Col. Thomas Mooney II, 55, will be buried at 3 p.m. Monday in the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, Punchbowl.
A resident of Huntington Beach, Calif., he died in a plane crash in the Virgin Islands recently.
Lt. Col. Mooney was chief pilot for an airline in California and had flown combat missions in World War II and the Korean and Vietnam wars. In recent years he had been a stunt pilot for such television series as "The Black Sheep Squadron," "Charley's Angels" and "The Six Million Dollar Man."
He is survived by his wife Gloria.
